A new chapter in life

Hello friends,

It has been some time since my last newsletter. Many of you know that I was able to become a full-time artist and gallery owner at Artem Pop Up Gallery in February, 2023, which has been a lifelong dream.

My family took ownership of the Pop Up Gallery in 2019, and it has been a true family business, with Varun and Riya minding the store while Salil and I worked full time until they both started their post-university careers. All three continue to showcase their art in the Artem Pop Up Gallery.

I have enjoyed getting into a new rhythm of managing the storefront, getting to know customers better, and also setting up an in-store studio space for my art. You are welcome to stop by during store hours and see my works-in-progress.

I was recently featured by the City of Evanston. You can read that article here.

Having more time to be creative is already allowing me to explore new ways to transfer my designs on gift items, such as mugs and coasters right here in my studio.

As you know, my collection includes hand made and hand-painted jewelry, hand-painted glasses and china, digitally printed silk scarves and tote bags with artwork, and acrylics, watercolors & alcohol ink wall art, which are all available at Artem in Downtown Evanston and other locations and online.

July will be full of downtown events that Artem is participating in that you can peruse here in the Artem July Newsletter Please stop by and I look forward to showcasing my new creations next month.

Wishing you a joyful summer full of precious moments,

Sarita
